MEMORANDUM FOR THE OSA/AMS RECORD, Info copies - as indicated. SUBJECT: Results of Preliminary Review of OSA Aeromedical Recor Available for Validation Study 1. In order to determine the potential value to be derived from a detailed examination of aeromedical data contained in pas and present OSA records, an extensive search of the active and repository files has been made. This action was taken in order to provide a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision in concert with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the propos to validate aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection criteria. 2. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mater in the records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluatio of its potential value in providing a useful end-product from it statistical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the fie bio statistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the delication of the proposition of the proposition of the proposition of the providing and the product from it statistical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the field the proposition of the propositio	The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mat records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluat potential value in providing a useful end-product from ical analysis. Admittedly has indicated and service in the first analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the first analysis.	view of OSA Aeromedical Records Study Dotential value to be derived dedical data contained in past we search of the active and as action was taken in order of the reaching a decision in DMS-AE&S Staffs on the proposal original aircrew selection considerable amount of material as made a personal evaluation a useful end-product from its eving no expertise in the field
MEMORANDUM FOR THE OSA/AMS RECORD, Info copies - as indicated. SUBJECT: Results of Preliminary Review of OSA Aeromedical Recor Available for Validation Study 1. In order to determine the potential value to be derived from a detailed examination of aeromedical data contained in pas and present OSA records, an extensive search of the active and repository files has been made. This action was taken in order to provide a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision in concert with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the propos to validate aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection criteria. 2. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mater in the records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluatio of its potential value in providing a useful end-product from it statistical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the fie bio statistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the debic statistics.	DUM FOR THE OSA/AMS RECORD, Info copies - as indicated. The Results of Preliminary Review of OSA Aeromedical Reconstruction of Preliminary Review of OSA Aeromedical Reconstruction of Validation Study In order to determine the potential value to be derived to detailed examination of aeromedical data contained in present OSA records, an extensive search of the active and ory files has been made. This action was taken in orderide a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision in with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the proposite aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection as. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mat records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluate potential value in providing a useful end-product from ical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the finities, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the	Info copies - as indicated. View of OSA Aeromedical Records Study Dotential value to be derived the dical data contained in past the search of the active and action was taken in order of some of the proposal of the propo
MEMORANDUM FOR THE OSA/AMS RECORD, Info copies - as indicated. SUBJECT: Results of Preliminary Review of OSA Aeromedical Recor Available for Validation Study 1. In order to determine the potential value to be derived from a detailed examination of aeromedical data contained in pas and present OSA records, an extensive search of the active and repository files has been made. This action was taken in order to provide a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision in concert with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the propos to validate aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection criteria. 2. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mater in the records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluation of its potential value in providing a useful end-product from its statistical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the field of the statistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decision statistics.	DUM FOR THE OSA/AMS RECORD, Info copies - as indicated. The Results of Preliminary Review of OSA Aeromedical Reconstruction of Preliminary Review of OSA Aeromedical Reconstruction of Validation Study In order to determine the potential value to be derived to detailed examination of aeromedical data contained in present OSA records, an extensive search of the active and ory files has been made. This action was taken in orderide a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision in with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the proposite aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection as. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mat records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluate potential value in providing a useful end-product from ical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the finities, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the	Info copies - as indicated. View of OSA Aeromedical Records Study Dotential value to be derived the dical data contained in past the search of the active and action was taken in order of some of the proposal of the propo
MEMORANDUM FOR THE OSA/AMS RECORD, Info copies - as indicated. SUBJECT: Results of Preliminary Review of OSA Aeromedical Recor Available for Validation Study 1. In order to determine the potential value to be derived from a detailed examination of aeromedical data contained in pas and present OSA records, an extensive search of the active and repository files has been made. This action was taken in order to provide a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision in concert with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the propos to validate aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection criteria. 2. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mater in the records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluation of its potential value in providing a useful end-product from it statistical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the field of statistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decision statistics.	DUM FOR THE OSA/AMS RECORD, Info copies - as indicated. The Results of Preliminary Review of OSA Aeromedical Reconstruction of Preliminary Review of OSA Aeromedical Reconstruction of Validation Study In order to determine the potential value to be derived to detailed examination of aeromedical data contained in present OSA records, an extensive search of the active and ory files has been made. This action was taken in orderide a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision in with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the proposite aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection as. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mat records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluate potential value in providing a useful end-product from ical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the finities, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the	Info copies - as indicated. View of OSA Aeromedical Records Study Dotential value to be derived the dical data contained in past the search of the active and action was taken in order of some of the proposal of the propo
MEMORANDUM FOR THE OSA/AMS RECORD, Info copies - as indicated. SUBJECT: Results of Preliminary Review of OSA Aeromedical Recor Available for Validation Study 1. In order to determine the potential value to be derived from a detailed examination of aeromedical data contained in pas and present OSA records, an extensive search of the active and repository files has been made. This action was taken in order to provide a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision in concert with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the propos to validate aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection criteria. 2. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mater in the records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluatio of its potential value in providing a useful end-product from it statistical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the fie bio statistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decision statistics.	DUM FOR THE OSA/AMS RECORD, Info copies - as indicated. The Results of Preliminary Review of OSA Aeromedical Reconstruction of Preliminary Review of OSA Aeromedical Reconstruction of Validation Study In order to determine the potential value to be derived to detailed examination of aeromedical data contained in present OSA records, an extensive search of the active and ory files has been made. This action was taken in orderide a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision in with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the proposite aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection as. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mat records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluate potential value in providing a useful end-product from ical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the finities, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the	Info copies - as indicated. View of OSA Aeromedical Records Study Dotential value to be derived the dical data contained in past the search of the active and action was taken in order of some of the proposal of the propo
l. In order to determine the potential value to be derived from a detailed examination of aeromedical data contained in pas and present OSA records, an extensive search of the active and repository files has been made. This action was taken in order to provide a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision in concert with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the propos to validate aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection criteria. 2. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mater in the records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluation of its potential value in providing a useful end-product from it statistical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the fie bio statistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decision statistics.	In order to determine the potential value to be derived detailed examination of aeromedical data contained in present OSA records, an extensive search of the active and ory files has been made. This action was taken in orderide a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision is with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the properties aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection a. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mate records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluate potential value in providing a useful end-product from ical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the firstics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the	view of OSA Aeromedical Records Study Dotential value to be derived dedical data contained in past we search of the active and as action was taken in order of the reaching a decision in DMS-AE&S Staffs on the proposal original aircrew selection considerable amount of material as made a personal evaluation a useful end-product from its eving no expertise in the field
l. In order to determine the potential value to be derived from a detailed examination of aeromedical data contained in pas and present OSA records, an extensive search of the active and repository files has been made. This action was taken in order to provide a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision in concert with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the propos to validate aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection criteria. 2. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mater in the records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluation of its potential value in providing a useful end-product from it statistical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the fie bio statistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decision statistics.	In order to determine the potential value to be derived detailed examination of aeromedical data contained in present OSA records, an extensive search of the active and ory files has been made. This action was taken in orderide a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision is with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the properties aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection a. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mate records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluate potential value in providing a useful end-product from ical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the firstics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the	view of OSA Aeromedical Records Study Dotential value to be derived dedical data contained in past we search of the active and as action was taken in order of the reaching a decision in DMS-AE&S Staffs on the proposal original aircrew selection considerable amount of material as made a personal evaluation a useful end-product from its eving no expertise in the field
l. In order to determine the potential value to be derived from a detailed examination of aeromedical data contained in pas and present OSA records, an extensive search of the active and repository files has been made. This action was taken in order to provide a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision in concert with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the propos to validate aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection criteria. 2. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mater in the records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluation of its potential value in providing a useful end-product from it statistical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the field of statistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decision statistics.	In order to determine the potential value to be derived detailed examination of aeromedical data contained in present OSA records, an extensive search of the active and ory files has been made. This action was taken in orderide a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision is with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the properties aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection a. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mate records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluate potential value in providing a useful end-product from ical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the firstics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the	view of OSA Aeromedical Records Study Dotential value to be derived dedical data contained in past we search of the active and as action was taken in order of the reaching a decision in DMS-AE&S Staffs on the proposal original aircrew selection considerable amount of material as made a personal evaluation a useful end-product from its eving no expertise in the field
l. In order to determine the potential value to be derived from a detailed examination of aeromedical data contained in pas and present OSA records, an extensive search of the active and repository files has been made. This action was taken in order to provide a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision in concert with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the propos to validate aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection criteria. 2. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mater in the records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluation of its potential value in providing a useful end-product from it statistical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the fie bio statistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decision in the statistics is a strongly that the decision is a statistic of the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decision is a statistical analysis.	In order to determine the potential value to be derived detailed examination of aeromedical data contained in present OSA records, an extensive search of the active and ory files has been made. This action was taken in ordered a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision is with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the properties aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection a. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mat records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluat potential value in providing a useful end-product from ical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the firstics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the	ootential value to be derived nedical data contained in past we search of the active and as action was taken in order of the field of the series of the proposal or searching a decision in the proposal or search of the proposal or search as made a personal evaluation a useful end-product from its eving no expertise in the field and present OSA records, an extensive search of the active and repository files has been made. This action was taken in order to provide a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision in concert with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the propos to validate aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection criteria. 2. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mater in the records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluatio of its potential value in providing a useful end-product from it statistical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the fie bio statistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the displacement.	detailed examination of aeromedical data contained in pent OSA records, an extensive search of the active and ory files has been made. This action was taken in orderide a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision i with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the properties aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection a. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mat records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluat potential value in providing a useful end-product from ical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the finitics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the	nedical data contained in past we search of the active and a section was taken in order of for reaching a decision in DMS-AE&S Staffs on the proposal ogical aircrew selection considerable amount of material as made a personal evaluation a useful end-product from its eving no expertise in the field and present OSA records, an extensive search of the active and repository files has been made. This action was taken in order to provide a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision in concert with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the propos to validate aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection criteria. 2. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mater in the records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluatio of its potential value in providing a useful end-product from it statistical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the fie bio statistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the displacement.	detailed examination of aeromedical data contained in pent OSA records, an extensive search of the active and ory files has been made. This action was taken in orderide a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision i with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the properties aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection a. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mat records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluat potential value in providing a useful end-product from ical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the finitics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the	nedical data contained in past we search of the active and a section was taken in order of for reaching a decision in DMS-AE&S Staffs on the proposal ogical aircrew selection considerable amount of material as made a personal evaluation a useful end-product from its eving no expertise in the field
and present OSA records, an extensive search of the active and repository files has been made. This action was taken in order to provide a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision in concert with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the propos to validate aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection criteria. 2. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mater in the records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluatio of its potential value in providing a useful end-product from it statistical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the fie bio statistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the displacement.	detailed examination of aeromedical data contained in pent OSA records, an extensive search of the active and ory files has been made. This action was taken in orderide a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision i with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the properties aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection a. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mat records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluat potential value in providing a useful end-product from ical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the finitics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the	nedical data contained in past we search of the active and a section was taken in order of for reaching a decision in DMS-AE&S Staffs on the proposal ogical aircrew selection considerable amount of material as made a personal evaluation a useful end-product from its eving no expertise in the field
and present OSA records, an extensive search of the active and repository files has been made. This action was taken in order to provide a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision in concert with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the propos to validate aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection criteria. 2. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mater in the records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluation of its potential value in providing a useful end-product from its statistical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the fieship statistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decision statistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decision in the statistics of the statistics.	detailed examination of aeromedical data contained in pent OSA records, an extensive search of the active and ory files has been made. This action was taken in orderide a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision i with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the properties aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection a. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mat records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluat potential value in providing a useful end-product from ical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the finitics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the	nedical data contained in past we search of the active and a section was taken in order of for reaching a decision in DMS-AE&S Staffs on the proposal ogical aircrew selection considerable amount of material as made a personal evaluation a useful end-product from its eving no expertise in the field
repository files has been made. This action was taken in order to provide a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision in concert with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the propos to validate aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection criteria. 2. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mater in the records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluation of its potential value in providing a useful end-product from its statistical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the field of its statistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decision is statistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decision in the statistics is the strongly that the decision in the statistics is the strongly that the decision in the statistics is the strongly that the decision in the statistics is a logical and providing a useful end-product from its potential value in providing a useful end-product from its potential value in providing a useful end-product from its potential value in providing a useful end-product from its potential value in providing a useful end-product from its potential value in providing a useful end-product from its potential value in providing a useful end-product from its potential value in providing a useful end-product from its potential value in providing a useful end-product from its potential value in providing and providing and provides and provid	ory files has been made. This action was taken in orderide a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision is with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the proposate aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection a. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mat records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluat potential value in providing a useful end-product from ical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the finitics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the	s action was taken in order for reaching a decision in DMS-AE&S Staffs on the proposal ogical aircrew selection considerable amount of material as made a personal evaluation a useful end-product from its tying no expertise in the field to provide a logical and sound basis for reaching a decision in concert with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the propos to validate aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection criteria. 2. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mater in the records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluation of its potential value in providing a useful end-product from its statistical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the field of statistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decision statistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decision is statistical analysis.	with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the proposate aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection a. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mat records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluat potential value in providing a useful end-product from ical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the f tistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the	s for reaching a decision in DMS-AE&S Staffs on the proposal ogical aircrew selection considerable amount of material as made a personal evaluation a useful end-product from its eving no expertise in the field concert with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the propos to validate aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection criteria. 2. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mater in the records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluation of its potential value in providing a useful end-product from its statistical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the fiest of the statistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decord of the statistics of the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decord of the statistics of the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decord of the statistics of the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decord of the statistics of the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decord of the statistics of the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decord of the statistics of the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decord of the statistics of the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decord of the statistics of the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decord of the statistics of the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decord of the statistics of the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decord of the statistics of the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decord of the statistics	with ORD Life Sciences and OMS-AE&S Staffs on the propdate aeromedical and psychological aircrew selection a. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mat records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluat potential value in providing a useful end-product from ical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the ftistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the	OMS-AE&S Staffs on the proposal ogical aircrew selection considerable amount of material as made a personal evaluation a useful end-product from its tying no expertise in the field
2. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mater in the records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluation of its potential value in providing a useful end-product from its statistical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the fiest of statistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decision of the statistics.	The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mat records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluat potential value in providing a useful end-product from ical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the f tistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the	considerable amount of materia as made a personal evaluation a useful end-product from its
2. The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mater in the records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluation of its potential value in providing a useful end-product from its statistical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the fiest of statistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decimal statistics.	The writer has uncovered a considerable amount of mat records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluat potential value in providing a useful end-product from ical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the f tistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the	as made a personal evaluation a useful end-product from its ving no expertise in the field
In the records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluation of its potential value in providing a useful end-product from its statistical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the fiestic statistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decision of the contract of of	records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluat potential value in providing a useful end-product from ical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the f tistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the	as made a personal evaluation a useful end-product from its ving no expertise in the field
In the records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluation of its potential value in providing a useful end-product from it statistical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the fiestic bio statistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the decision of the content of th	records (See Enclosure) and has made a personal evaluat potential value in providing a useful end-product from ical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the f tistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the	as made a personal evaluation a useful end-product from its ving no expertise in the field statistical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the fie	ical analysis. Admittedly having no expertise in the f tistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the	ving no expertise in the field
)10 Statistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the d	tistics, the writer nonetheless feels strongly that the	ving no expertise in the field at hand could not be treated in any	could not be treated in any manner as to wield any wal	ess feels strongly that the dat
at hand could not be treated in any manner as to yield any valid		manner as to vield any valid correlations. However, a meeting has been set up in	Lions. However, a meeting has been set up in	s been set up in conference room for 1330, 6 Jan 69, for the purpose of reviewing and evaluating said records. Meanwhile, the writer do	Conference room for 1330, 6 Jan 69, for the purpose ng and evaluating said records Meanwhile the writer	6 Jan 69, for the purpose of feel that the aeromedical and operational records at hand could	at the aeromedical and operational records at hand coul	S Meanwhile the writer door and should be extracted and summarized into a narrative, historic	uld be extremed and and are	s. Meanwhile, the writer does ional records at hand could and evaluation activities. The principal question to be reigned	ulu be extracted and summarized into a narrative, histo	s. Meanwhile, the writer does ional records at hand could ed into a narrative historica making a decision on such a project would be its ultimate worth	t which could have valuable reference to future selecti	s. Meanwhile, the writer does ional records at hand could ed into a narrative, historica eference to future selection relation to the effort and/or costs involved.	t which could have valuable reference to future selecti luation activities. The principal question to be raise a decision on such a project would be its ultimate wort	s. Meanwhile, the writer does ional records at hand could ed into a narrative, historica eference to future selection cipal question to be raised in would be its ultimate worth in
	t which could have valuable reference to future selecti luation activities. The principal question to be raise a decision on such a project would be its ultimate wort	s. Meanwhile, the writer does ional records at hand could ed into a narrative, historica eference to future selection cipal question to be raised in would be its ultimate worth in
	t which could have valuable reference to future selecti luation activities. The principal question to be raise a decision on such a project would be its ultimate wort	s. Meanwhile, the writer does ional records at hand could ed into a narrative, historica eference to future selection cipal question to be raised in would be its ultimate worth in
	t which could have valuable reference to future selecti luation activities. The principal question to be raise a decision on such a project would be its ultimate wort	s. Meanwhile, the writer does ional records at hand could ed into a narrative, historica eference to future selection cipal question to be raised in would be its ultimate worth in
	t which could have valuable reference to future selecti luation activities. The principal question to be raise a decision on such a project would be its ultimate wort n to the effort and/or costs involved.	is. Meanwhile, the writer does ional records at hand could sed into a narrative, historical eference to future selection cipal question to be raised in would be its ultimate worth in involved.
Consultant, OSA/AMS	t which could have valuable reference to future selecti luation activities. The principal question to be raise a decision on such a project would be its ultimate wort	is. Meanwhile, the writer does ional records at hand could sed into a narrative, historical eference to future selection cipal question to be raised in would be its ultimate worth in involved.
•	t which could have valuable reference to future selecti luation activities. The principal question to be raise a decision on such a project would be its ultimate wort n to the effort and/or costs involved. Consultant, OSA/AMS	is. Meanwhile, the writer does ional records at hand could sed into a narrative, historical eference to future selection cipal question to be raised in would be its ultimate worth in involved.
	t which could have valuable reference to future selecti luation activities. The principal question to be raise a decision on such a project would be its ultimate wort n to the effort and/or costs involved. Consultant, OSA/AMS res:	is. Meanwhile, the writer does ional records at hand could sed into a narrative, historical eference to future selection cipal question to be raised in would be its ultimate worth in involved.
Enclosures: Tabulation of data	t which could have valuable reference to future selecti luation activities. The principal question to be raise a decision on such a project would be its ultimate wort n to the effort and/or costs involved. Consultant, OSA/AMS res: ation of data	is. Meanwhile, the writer does ional records at hand could sed into a narrative, historical eference to future selection cipal question to be raised in would be its ultimate worth in involved.
Inclosures:	t which could have valuable reference to future selecti luation activities. The principal question to be raise a decision on such a project would be its ultimate wort n to the effort and/or costs involved. Consultant, OSA/AMS res: ation of data	is. Meanwhile, the writer does ional records at hand could sed into a narrative, historical eference to future selection cipal question to be raised in would be its ultimate worth in involved.

Approved For Release 2003/12/22 : CIA-RDP79B00314A000900030017-2

CONSULTANT

30 December 1968

STAT

LIST OF RECORDS IN OSA FILES

1. "I" Project activities since 1956

Aeromedical and Related Records.

- 17 Active Project Pilots all categories
 - Initial and Annual Aeromedical Examinations
 - Initial Psychological Evaluations
 - ½ Evaluated by Psychiatrist
 - ½ Exposed to Special Training Exercise
- 25 Inactive Project Pilots U.S. Category
 - Initial and some Annual Aeromedical Examinations
 - No Psychiatric or Psychological Evaluations per se but on some the standard AF for SPF was completed.
- 16 Inactive Project Pilots other categories
 - Initial Aeromedical Examinations
- 17 Staff Assigned Pilots; checked out in aircraft but flew no operational missions.
 - Initial and some annual aeromedical examinations
- 11 Rejected candidates for assignment as project pilots
 - Initial aeromedical examinations
- 6 Project Pilots "washed-out" during training
 - Aeromedical Examinations
- 5 Contractor Test Pilots
 - Aeromedical Examinations
- 6 Aircraft Fatalities
 - Aeromedical Examinations
 - Accident Investigations
 - Autopsy Reports
- 103 TOTAL "I" Pilot Records

Approved For Release 2003/12/22: CIA-RDP79B00314A000900030017-2

Approved For Release	2003/12/22 : CIA-RDP	79B00314A0გႳჹჹჹ0030017-2
----------------------	----------------------	--------------------------

	CO	NSULTANT	•
			•
			•	•
			•		30 December 1968
			•
2.	''O''	Project	Activities Since	1962
7					hole of operational tour
			and annual aerome chological evalua		inations
·			tric evaluations -		• •
	-	Special	training exercise	e
	-	Semi-ann	nual psychologica	l evaluation	n by F/S
3	_	Project	assigned pilots	dropped from	m the program
•			same as above		F- 38-33-33-33-33-33-33-33-33-33-33-33-33-3
2			pilot fatalities	in aircraf	t accidents
	_		as above ent and autopsy re	eport
	_	* neerue	one and advoped in	opor c
17	-				as project pilots - same as abo	ove except no foli	low-on reco	rds.
11	_	Staff as	ssigned pilots ch	ecked-out i	n aircraft but flew no
		missio	ons
	-	Annual a	aeromedical exami	nations
6	_	Contract	tor Test Pilots
 		00110140
46	-	TOTAL "	O" Pilot Records
102		TOTAL III	I" Pilot Records
103		TOTAL .	1 Pilot Records
149	-	TOTAL P	ilot Records Avai	lable
_			1	C	a commalation with illary re ical data		ior possibl	e correlation with aero	шеал	icai uati	a ,
			g mission Records		rational mission records
		Officer	s' Effectiveness	Reports Pol	ygraph Records
			el Records - Pers		'S
		sound Ta	apes from intervi	ews, etc.
4.	Fol:	Low-up a	eromedical and op	erational d	ata from Air Force and othe	r go	overnmen	t agencies could	be made ava	ilable if so desired.

Approved For Release 2003/12/22 : CIA-RDP79B00314A000900030017-2

Ω 2				Eva l	vals	3	J	Parti	2 %	, P.	342.5
3	7	bal	PILOT CATEGORY	ed for Rele	ase 2003/12	/22 A CJA-RI	pPZeB0031	1A000000003	0017-	39	Š.
× ~	1671	7	The state of the s	-1 -	3 G	300	3 3	2 9	7.2	$
Sack	25	3		र्द है	200	œ.	8	کّ کے	200	٠ بۇ كى	ž
19	2	_	I Proceay	A A	4	9		F	8
1
$-\frac{2}{3}$	es	17	Active Project pilots	Yes	yes	Partial	pantal	-yer	yes	yes	partral
_4 y	c $	٤٥	Inactive Project Pilots	yes	yes	20	20	yes	yes	yes	yes
6	0	اله	Imachius Project pulots	yes	No.	120	NB	_yes	yes	No	ಬಂ
- 8 y	25_	17	STAPF Pilots - no ops	yes	yes_	و د	No	2	20	yes	20
10	P.	,,	Rejected Candidates	ves	20	No	No	٥٨	\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\	No	No
11	-	'		1111
12 y	6.7	6	Trainee wash-outs	700	၂၂ ဗ	رەدا	No	7 ye 5	0.2	Jes	20
14	0	5	CONTROCT-OF PILOTS	yes	yes	No	partial	ಗಿಂ	Na	Vο	70
pan	al	6	Deceased - a/c accidons	yer	partal	ه د	No.	partail	parhal	partil	partial
17		93	teral
19			6 Program
20
2!y	S	7.	operat. Project Rlots	yes	y es	yes	yes	yes	yes	-\cs_	yes
23 24	y el	5	troj. Picots - dropped - Killn	yes	yes	y e $	yes	y	partice	y 0 &	yes
25	c s	١7	Rejected condidates	yes	No	yes	yes	Νο	No	W0	NO
_26		ļ., l		 	- - -
27 28	85	11	Shaff assigned pilots	72>	725	Νo	100	2 5	NO	No	No
	νs	6	Contractor Pilots	1) 2 3	partal	partue	partal	No	م بر	NO	No
30		46
			Grand Foral 149								